The image shows the Chinese character 丸 (wán) in a calligraphic style. The character is composed of three main strokes: 1. A vertical line starting from the top, curving slightly to the right, and ending in a small hook. 2. A horizontal line starting from the left, crossing the vertical line, and ending in a small hook. 3. A curved line starting from the bottom left, crossing the horizontal line, and ending in a small hook.
