漢字 15: Un- (非)

|  |        |
|--|--------|
|  | Notes: |
|--|--------|

This is an important negating prefix, much like ‘不’ (‘Not’, from Entry ??). In this and future stories we will assign it the external meaning of “amoebas”.

Take care with the stroke order—though the first line of the ‘merging’ component is the initial stroke of this 漢字, the second comes after the three amoebas on the left. Also keep in mind that the six amoebas are always written left to right.

Substitute.

This interesting 漢字 also carries some important secondary meanings—it can indicate a ‘fee’ for some type of good or service (think of the fee as a ‘substitute’ for what is received), as well as convey the idea of ‘generations’ in compounds related to eras of reigns (as in the third example below).
