| In the general physical of “to open”, あく and あける function as a normal intransitive/transitive verb pair.                                                                                                  |   |   |
| ひらく is more concerned with a metaphorical or non-physical sense of “opening”, and appears primarily in expressions (in the “opening”, for example, of a conference, of new lands, or of cherry blossoms). |   |   |
| Expressing the sense of a shop’s front door being open would thus call for the verb あく, while conveying the idea of opening a business would require ひらく.                                                 |   |   |
